Grandparent's day is celebrated every year in September to honor grandparents. Steer through this article to learn more about national grandparent's day. Grandparents Day, also known as National Grandparents Day – is a holiday that is celebrated the first Sunday after Labor Day and is used to celebrate both maternal and paternal grandparents. While it is primarily celebrated in the United States – other countries also have celebration to honor their parent's parents. National Grandparents Day is not a public holiday. It falls on Sunday, September 8, 2019 and most businesses follow regular Sunday opening hours in the United States. Forget-me-not flowers not only beautiful but they also symbolize National Grandparents Day in the United States. ©iStockphoto.com/Igor Rybiy.

What Do People Do?